Confession Title

P: In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C: Amen

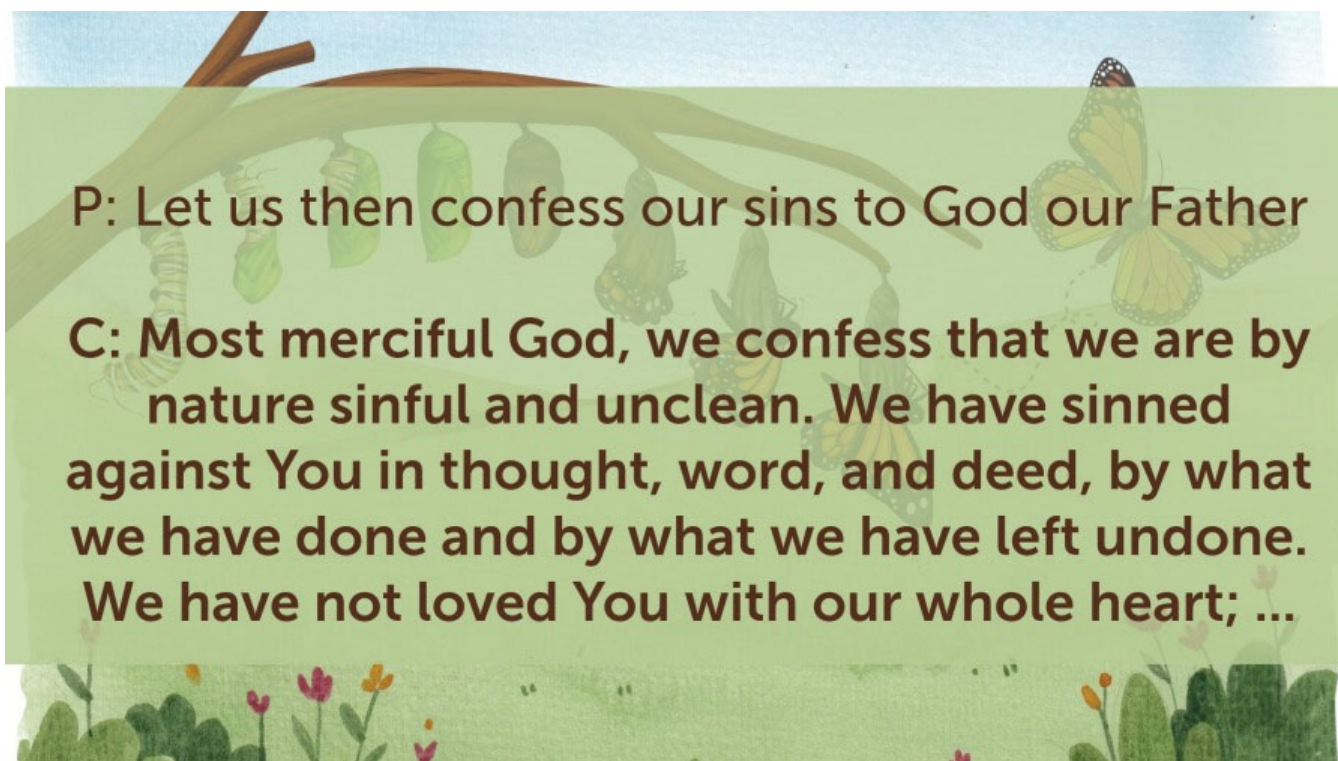

P: If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in in us.

C: But if we confess our sins, God, who is faithful and just, will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

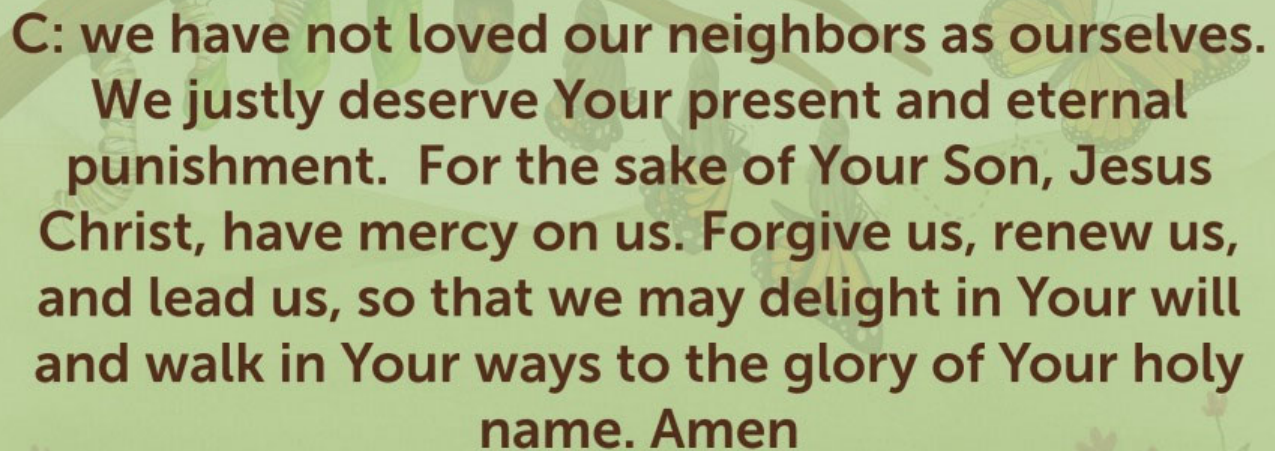

silence for reflection on God

P: Let us then confess our sins to God our Father

C: Most merciful God, we confess that we are by nature sinful and unclean. We have sinned against You in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved You with our whole heart; ...

C: we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We justly deserve Your present and eternal punishment. For the sake of Your Son, Jesus Christ, have mercy on us. Forgive us, renew us, and lead us, so that we may delight in Your will and walk in Your ways to the glory of Your holy name. Amen

R: It pleased Darius to appoint 120 satraps to rule throughout the kingdom, with three administrators over them,

C: one of whom was Daniel.

R: The satraps were made accountable to them so that the king might not suffer loss. Now Daniel so distinguished himself among the administrators and the satraps by his exceptional qualities

C: that the king planned to set him over the whole kingdom.

R: At this, the administrators and the satraps tried to find grounds for charges against Daniel in his conduct of government affairs,

C: but they were unable to do so.

R: They could find no corruption in him,
because he was trustworthy and neither corrupt nor negligent. Finally these men said,

C: "We will never find any basis for charges against this man Daniel unless it has something to do with the law of his God."

C. Glory be to the Father and to the Son
